

EFC -- Child and Youth Protection Quiz

1. When children are abused they may experience
 - a. Alienation and feelings of isolation
 - b. Guilt and insecurity
 - c. Can go on to victimize others
 - d. All of the above
2. Predators tell us they use 3 factors to violate children and youth: access, privacy, and control.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Children do not talk about being abused because:
 - a. A sense of shame
 - b. They don't want to get anyone in trouble
 - c. Both A and B
4. Bruises and scars on the _____ of a child's body may need further investigation.
 - a. knees and elbows
 - b. head and toes
 - c. soft tissue
 - d. none of the above
5. We should talk with children and youth about their personal purity and safety.
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. Our first priority is for people to experience the protection, grace, and _____ offered by God for their lives.
 - a. forgiveness
 - b. happiness
 - c. peace
 - d. wholeness
7. Here are some important ways to help prevent false allegations of abuse. Be familiar with and live by the definitions of _____ physical interactions. Don't engage in _____ physical interactions. If you see someone letting down the standard or crossing inappropriate lines, honestly and prayerfully approach _____.
 - a. appropriate
 - b. your ministry leader
 - c. inappropriate
8. Leaders of your church ministries are required to _____ all teachers and volunteers from time to time.
 - a. have regular check ins with
 - b. observe
 - c. provide donuts for

9. The largest group of victims of maltreatment is aged _____ and younger.
- 3 years
 - 6 years
 - 8 years
 - 12 years
10. When we read a protocol that we personally disagree with we should ignore it, and going through the Safe Sanctuary training is optional.
- True
 - False
11. Maltreatment covers a wide variety of issues from physical and _____ mistreatment to violent and sexual assault. Youth to youth maltreatment ranges from childhood hazing to “cyber bullying” using online and cell phone technology.
- verbal
 - emotional
 - angry
 - violent
12. The Foursquare Church is committed to providing safe places for children and youth; places where they can discover Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and where they can grow in Him and His plan for their lives.
- True
 - False
13. Every adult that speaks to a kid who is alone is probably looking for an opportunity.
- True
 - False
14. When we suspect abuse we should:
- Aggressively question the child until we know the whole truth.
 - Gently prod the child until we know the whole story.
 - Bring our concerns to our ministry leader or the church’s child safety delegate.
 - Discuss the situation with friends that we trust.
15. The most important step we should take in preventing child abuse is:
- Pray
 - Have boundaries
 - Learn about child abuse
 - Understand that children have a call of God on their lives
 - Know how to self-protect